

A three-year Ph.D. fellowship is available in the laboratory of Prof. Paola Bruni at the Department of Biochemical Sciences, University of Florence, to work at a Telethon-funded project dealing with the role of bioactive lipids in skeletal muscle regeneration. Interested candidates can contact Prof. Bruni (paola.bruni@unifi.it). Assignment of the 3-year Ph. D. fellowship requires the participation to a public competition and successful selection pass.

Presumed deadline for public competition registration: Summer 2009. Presumed completion of public competition: end of 2009. presumed beginning of Ph.D. program: January 2010.